
All are invited

DeKoven Day

March 22, 2023

The Feast of Blessed James DeKoven will be celebrated at The DeKoven Center, 600 Caron Butler Drive in Racine, Wisconsin.

RSVP at dekoventcenter.org/dekovenday
A freewill donation is requested for the meal.

Service | 11:00 a.m.

Collegiate Chapel of St. John

The Feast Day begins with the Celebration of the Holy Eucharist. The Celebrant is the Rev. Geoffrey Ward, President of DeKoven Center and Rector of St. Christopher's Episcopal Church, River Hills. The Homilist is The Rt. Rev. Jeffrey Lee, Bishop Provisional of Milwaukee. Music provided by organist Hunter Erickson.

Memorial at DeKoven's Tomb

Following the Eucharist, there will be a procession to DeKoven's tomb outside the Chapel for a Memorial and Prayers with a Color Guard and Bagpiper from St. John's Northwestern Academies.

Fellowship Meal | 12:30 p.m.

Taylor Hall

A lite fellowship meal. Dr. John Magerus will provide a short presentation on his work of writing a full biography of James DeKoven. A freewill donation of $20 is requested for the cost of the meal.

DeKoven Tour | 2:00 p.m.

Following the fellowship meal, all have opportunity to tour The DeKoven Center campus. In addition to the historic buildings, the tour will pause at the new Memorial Benches to offer prayers of thanksgiving for those who have offered service at Racine College and The DeKoven Center over the decades.

James DeKoven was the most widely known and respected leader of the Anglo-Catholic movement of the nineteenth century and is listed on the calendar of the Episcopal Church. Observing his Feast Day has been one of DeKoven Center's longest traditions.

